

Your Voice, Your Values, Your Village

I value open communication, practical leadership with an eye to preserving what makes our village unique.

- AmyFH330@gmail.com
- (440) 552-3944
- 6112 N Locust St

CLARKSON UNIVERSITY

Mechanical Engineering & Business
Ethics BPS

LEMOYNE COLLEGE

Physics BS

SKILLS

Leadership

Collaboration

Problem Solving

Professional Facilitation

Process Management

Website Development

Knowledge Management

Strategic Planning

Adaptability

Amy Frank-Hensley

DEVOTED PENINSULA RESIDENT

2016-Present

Consistent attendee at village council and planning commission meetings. Active participant in discussions regarding the Long-Range Plan and member of the Area Master Planning Committee. Active member of the Peninsula Home & Garden Club and an advocate for preserving the sense of community and history. Past board member of the Peninsula Library & Historical Society. Committed to fostering solutions to the issues facing the village today and in the future via research, data and citizen input.

COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP

2001- Present

Dedicated to enhancing community through local nonprofit leadership positions. Two-term President of the Mentor Public Library Board of Trustees with $5M operating budget. Gained extensive experience concerning funding, employee and community relations, the legal workings of a public entity, land acquisition, major building renovations and the need to adapt to changing community needs. Facilitator of strategic planning sessions for multiple non-profits.

SWAGELOK COMPANY

1992-Present

Wide range of leadership experience in a highly collaborative corporate environment. Known for facilitating large groups through complex business problems and innovative solutions. Multiple Innovation Award recipient. Leadership roles in Engineering, Customer Service, Communications, Project Management, Sales Support, Continuous Improvement and HR.